Kim Kardashian and Reggie Bush Open Up Opium

Posted April 12th, 2009

In pre-Easter party mode, Kim Kardashian hosted the grand opening of Opium nightclub in the Hollywood Seminole Hard Rock Hotel on Saturday night (April 11).

In Hard Rock tradition, the E! reality starlet smashed a guitar on the red carpet for the opening ceremonies, posing alongside her dates for the night, boyfriend Reggie Bush and her brother Rob Kardashian.

During the course of the evening, the "Keeping Up with the Kardashians" cutie and her New Orleans Saints footballer beau even took time to pose with her Easter bunny and colored eggs.

Meanwhile, the couple plans to spend the Easter holiday together in New Orleans, with Kim telling Us magazine, "I will be in New Orleans with Reggie [Bush]! We are going to a Hornets basketball game to see his friend Chris Paul play and then all decorate Easter eggs!"
